EVENING CHAT.

An international dog show is announced to be held at Haarlem, in Holland, from the 26th to the 28th of June.

"If you do not want to be robbed of your good name, don't have it printed on your umbrella."

Twenty-five thousand quails are being imported from England, to be set at liberty in Philadelphia.

New York's exports of domestic produce for the past week amounted to $8,146,413, a more favorable footing than for a long time.

A man who doesn't care two shakes of a lamb's tail about the newspapers, will ride fourteen miles through a fierce snow storm to get a copy of a weekly that spoke of him as "a prominent citizen."

Two sons of the Prince of Wales are expected to be present in Quebec, May 24th, on the occasion of a grand military review of 5,000 troops.

Thousands of tons of Lamberger cheese are produced in New York and Wisconsin, at less than half the cost of the imported article.

The man who can shy a rock at his neighbor's head without breaking ninety cents worth of window glass is the man who'll be happiest while making his garden this year.

Great men do not think themselves above everybody else, 'tis those ignorant little runts who part their hair in the center and sport canes and who refuse to pay their washing bills that think everyone beneath them.

A citizen whose wife had presented him with triplets, remarked as he reckoned up his running expenses, that children were a comfort in life, but he preferred to receive them on the installment plan.

Mrs. Sackett, of Downsville, Delaware county, slammed her door to, and a gun standing behind it fell to the floor, discharging the contents into her leg, and making a wound which necessitated amputation. Moral—Always shut a door softly, as though there was sickness in the family.

A frenzied drunkard held a pistol at a barkeeper's head at Portsmouth, Va., and pulled the trigger. The charge failed to explode, and the man peered curiously into the barrel. At that instant the bullet came out and killed him.

A German traveler in Africa characterized a people he came across as "intensely black, dolichocephalic and platyrrhine, prognathous, dichotomous and dolichodactylous." We have seen a man knocked down for less than that.

The yearly capacity of the steel-mills of the world is now estimated at about three million tons, of which Great Britain turns out about 800,000 tons; America, 750,000; Germany, 400,000; France, 275,000; Austria, 250,000; and Sweden and Russia, 150,000.

The Duke of Newcastle, the Marquis of Anglesey, and the Earl of Fife, who died within the year, were the three most heavily insured men in England, the companies being hit for $6,250,000, while two other noblemen who have just died had between them $1,250,000 in the same companies.

BISHOP WHITAKER'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, RENO.

This School has been in successful operation for three years and a half, and has become well known throughout the State. From the time it was first opened until now no pains have been spared on the part of those who have it in charge to make it a

FIRST-CLASS SCHOOL.

Fully worthy the confidence of those who have daughters to be educated. And these efforts have been successful. It gives us pleasure to say that although the number of scholars has at some times been larger than during the last term, the School is now in better condition than it has ever before been and it is now, more than ever before, worthy of patronage and support.

TEACHERS:

Miss Kate A. Still, the first Principal, returned and resumed her position at the beginning of the last term, to the great satisfaction of every scholar, and friend of the School. Mrs. I. B. Graham has also returned, and with Miss Still will hereafter be identified with the School. Miss Eva Quaid, a teacher of music, is too well and favorably known to need any commendation from us. In addition to these the Rev. W. E. Tenney, Miss Julia S. Woodruff, and Miss Jane Briggs, three thoroughly competent teachers have been employed during the past term. Addition to the staff of teachers will be made when ever the wants of the School may require it, but with thirty-five scholars, the number in attendance during the last term, six teachers are amply sufficient to do full justice to every scholar. While special attention is given to the Common English Studies.

And to the health and good manners of scholars, there is not wanting every facility afforded for acquiring all the accomplishments of a Higher Education.

One admirable feature of the School is that lessons in Free Hand Drawing, Singing and Penmanship are given regularly to all the pupils without extra charge. Calligraphy and Physical Training also receive due attention. But the best feature of the School is that it is a Refined, Cultivated, Christian Home.

It is in the formation of a pure womanly character in its pupils that its chief and most enduring influence is to be found. There are few who have been long connected with the School who do not show the effect of this influence upon their character and habits. The charges are as low as they can reasonably be placed.

$300 a Year

Pays for Board and Tuition in all the English studies. Books and Washing are charged at the actual cost. An additional charge is made for private lessons in Music, Drawing or Modern Languages.

The Next Term begins on Thursday,

January 8, 1880.

Letters of inquiry and applications for admission should be made to

MISS KATE A. STILL,
Reno, Nevada,
or to
BISHOP WHITAKER,
Virginia City, Nevada.

SUNDAY, APRIL 4, 1880.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Nebraska Democratic Convention adopted strong Tilden resolutions and elected a strong and solid Tilden delegation to Cincinnati.

Further Liberal victories in England are reported.

A canal to unite the Atlantic and Mediterranean is proposed by eminent French gentlemen.

By a coal mine explosion in Belgium twenty lives were lost.

Senator Edmunds made a speech against the Immediate Deficiency Bill, in the Senate, on Friday, on account of the "rider." The bill was passed by a strict party vote. It is believed the President will veto it.

Some of our best statisticians think the next census will show a population of 47,000,000.

For the first time in the history of Douglas County, all delinquent taxes have been paid.

Nevada has twenty-nine newspapers; two semi-weeklies, ten weeklies and one monthly.

The debt statement shows a decrease in the public debt for March of $14,719,397. The mission of the Republican party is not yet ended.

The speech of Senator Logan on the Fitz-John Porter case is the longest ever published in the Congressional Record. It will occupy forty-eight pages. Its publication will be held for the execution of a map which is to go with it, showing the battle ground where General Porter was alleged to have disobeyed orders.

NORTHERN NEVADA RAILWAY.—Colonel Lyman Bridges arrived in Tuscarora Thursday last from the North. He, with a party, is making a preliminary survey of the most feasible route for the proposed Northern Nevada Railway, from Battle Mountain to some point in Idaho. He informed the Times-Review reporter that about 120 miles of the line will be built shortly though no route has as yet been determined upon.

DOUGLAS COUNTY MATTERS.—The Carson Tribune says: Doubtless Douglas county is in the easiest circumstances of any in the State. An inspection of the Treasurer's and Auditor's report shows the entire indebtedness of the county to be $1,150; $1,084 on the Road Fund and $66 on the Hospital Fund. Next week license and other county moneys will reduce the above amount some $900. A very enviable position for a county to be placed in.

Blaine men are claiming that Sherman's speech at Mansfield is a virtual admission that he will not allow his name to go before the Chicago Convention, because of the opposition to his candidacy in Ohio. Blaine managers in Washington assert that the Ohio delegation will be nearly equally divided between Sherman and Blaine, and that according to the statement made by the former he will then withdraw from the contest.

A canvass of the Mississippi Legislature for first and second choice for Presidential nominees in the respective national conventions shows Horatio Seymour, of New York, to be by long odds the favorite of the Democrats. Next to him stands General Hancock, with Bayard a good third. The Republicans, six in number, are all colored and vote unanimously for the ex-President and Blaine. Among the Democrats is one colored member, who votes for the ex-President.

It seems to be well settled in Oregon political circles that either Rufus Mallory, at present United States District Attorney, or M. C. George will receive the Republican nomination for Congress. There is a report which comes from a trustworthy source, that John Whiteaker, present Congressman, has written a letter positively refusing to allow his name to be used as a candidate for re-election. The supposition is that Mr. Whiteaker wants to wait and work things up for the United States Senate.

Miss Emma Wixom, of Austin, is thus alluded to by an Eastern paper: "Mlle. Nevada, the young American who is to take the opera-going public by storm this season, and before whom, her enthusiasts say, the radiance of Patti and Albani will pale, is at present staying at Nice, where she is diligently practising. She will make her debut in 'Somnambula,' at Her Majesty's Opera, London, early in May. The young lady, who is just twenty, is reported to be a capital actress, and is to receive £15,000 for her part."

Eventful Careers.

Every old Pacific Coaster will doubtless remember Lola Montez, that erratic woman whose adventures and doings were subjects of world-wide comment twenty years ago. How at one time she was the favorite mistress of Ludwig, King of Bavaria, thence to drift into the gold regions of California in search of that excitement and notoriety which were absolute necessities to her very existence. For several years she lived in Grass Valley, Cal., then a lively '49 headquarters and where her Cottage still stands, the residence of S. D. Bowworth, the Deputy Postmaster. While in Grass Valley she lived high upon the wealth of the miners who thought it a great honor to be the accepted lover of an ex-queen, and many of them thought her the essence of constancy—and she was as long as they spent their money freely to gratify her—only to find themselves thrown aside for a wealthier suitor. That town is full of stories of her exploits, how she horsewhipped an editor and kept a huge black bear chained to a tree beside her door and a hundred other unusual things, and all to keep people talking about her, and finally of her miserable death in an Eastern City, alone and in poverty.

All these memories are aroused by the discovery in New York City of a woman who was the natural daughter of Lola Montez and King Ludwig. This unholy child is following her mother's footsteps as fully as circumstances will permit. Designed by her guardian for a nun she was placed in a convent to be educated and actually did become one, but the hereditary love of notoriety rebelled at so monotonous a life and she escaped. We next find her wife of a metropolitan journalist. His early death relieved her of the irksomeness of "home life," and she took to the stage. This not proving congenial she has now assumed the role of a spiritual medium and has gathered a circle of chosen spirits around her, and is now being gratified by the adulation of those attracted by her "spiritual manifestations." Unlike her mother, Mrs. De Bar is not a very handsome woman, nor does she possess that vivacity that characterized her. She glories in the title of "The Princess Editha Lozala, Baroness of Rosenthal," and when short of funds does not hesitate to notify the present King of Bavaria, son of her father, of her needs, and he faithfully supplies all his half sister's demands.

Grant's New Orleans Speech.

On arriving in New Orleans Grant was escorted by a large procession to his hotel, and welcomed by Gen. Bussy. He replied:

Gentlemen and Citizens of New Orleans:—After an absence of many years from your State, I am happy to return to it and very proud of the reception I am receiving at your hands, and very glad that it is given by your citizens in respect of former relations. The scenes of war are now passed, and we are a united people. I believe that if this country should unfortunately become involved in war we will all wear the same uniform and fight under the same flag. [Cheers.] I hope that New Orleans and this section will have the prosperity they deserve. What benefits this city benefits the adjoining section. This State is capable of producing millions of dollars' worth more of sugar than it does at present. I rejoice with you in the prosperity you have. I am glad to hear that this city has been so much benefited by the improvement at the mouth of the river. What helps you helps a large section of your country and the entire Mississippi Valley. I wish New Orleans and the South increased and long continued prosperity, believing and knowing that it is the best cure for disorder and sectional animosities. Industrious people are always happy and contented. Again let me thank you, Mr. Chairman, and friends, for this kind reception, and in conclusion I hope that the blue and the gray may never again be arrayed against each other. The past is gone. Again I thank you. [Long and continued applause.]

The Charleston News and Courier (Dem.) emphatically takes the ground that the unseating of Senator Kellogg will be injurious and dangerous to the Democratic party. It reviews and sets forth with perfect clearness the facts of the case, and argues that the understanding between the two political sides in the Senate when Butler and Kellogg were sworn in was admitted as a finality and ought not to be disturbed or reopened. The article closes as follows: "It will be a bright day for the Democratic party if the Democratic Senators decline to follow the lead of Mr. Hill in his Kellogg business. A postponement of the matter is not enough. What is wanted is a square and straight vote. There will be a brilliant opportunity to show how nice is the sense of honor among the Southern Senators and how unwilling they are to use power ruthlessly to secure a political advantage that will cost a thousand times more than it is worth."

General Joseph Lane, who has not taken an active part in politics since his retirement from the United States Senate and candidacy for Vice President of the United States some 20 years ago, has been nominated by the Democrats of Douglas county, Oregon, for the State

Rates on the Nevada Central.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says the following special rates over the Nevada Central Railway will take effect April 2d, 1880: "Ores, 10 cents per ton per mile; lumber, laths, shingles, and hay, 15 cents per ton per mile; coal and wood, 11 cents per ton per mile. If like rates were charged on the Central Pacific Railroad, it would cost about $48 per ton to ship ores from here to San Francisco. If those rates are special, it would be interesting to know what the regular rates are over the Lander county narrow gauge.—[Winemucca Silver State.]

How much does it cost you to ship your ores, and are the rates too high? If so, how much?

The war is over. The Baltimore City Council has passed a resolution granting permission to the Society of the Army and Navy of the Confederates to erect a Confederate monument in Eutaw Square, the most prominent part of the city. This action is severely condemned by Maryland Republicans and Union Democrats.

The Austin Reville understands that the management of the Nevada Central Railway express themselves as satisfied with the business of the road for the month of March. It was better than it was expected it would be, considering the season of year and other causes that might be assigned.

A dispatch from Pioche states that Pioche has agreed to the necessity of railroad communication with the outside world, and an enthusiastic meeting on the subject was held last Wednesday night. A preliminary survey of a line to the Utah Southern has already been ordered.

John A. Mahanny is a candidate for re-election to the position of City Tax Collector of Virginia subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention. Mr. Mahanny has made a good officer.

The Mammoth Herald thinks that one of the most promising fields for prospecting, and one which has not yet attracted the attention of the adventurous prospector, lies to the south of Lake District along the western slope of the Sierra, between the headwaters of Owens and King rivers.

When a New Hampshire chap wanted to break off the engagement of the girl he loved of another fellow, he didn't try to persuade either that the other was false. He just contrived to get them both to join the same church choir, and in less than a week they didn't speak.

"Going to leave, Mary?" "yes mum, I find I am very discontented." "If there is anything I can do to make you comfortable let me know." "No, mum, it's impossible. You can't alter your finger to my finger no more'n I can. Your dresses won't fit me and I can't appear on Sundays as I used at my last place where missus' clothes fitted exactly."

JOE PRINTING.—This office has every facility for doing all kinds of job printing. And inasmuch as all home industries should have the preference over all others, we should be pleased to receive orders at any time for that class of work.

Connecticut's delegation will be divided between Blaine, Washburne and Edmunds. Blaine will have a majority.

There will be a meeting of the Reno Hebrew Benevolent Society this afternoon at Lachman & Meyer's store. All members are requested to be present.

The initial copy of the Genoa Journal is at hand. In style and make up it is the direct counterpart of the Carson Valley News. Its reading columns are attractive and lively. Success to the Journal.

The freight train, containing several carloads of cattle, left here yesterday morning with the intention of going to San Francisco; but the storm in the mountains had demoralized the snowsheds and track to such an extent that it could not get through. It came back to Reno and unloaded the cattle, and will wait until the way is clear before trying it again.

An assessment of 50 cents per share will be levied on the capital stock of

No Trains.

Snowsheds Down—General Demoralization On The Road.

The present storm is the worst of the season. On Friday the storm was severe on the mountains, and caused trains to be delayed, because the sheds and track near Emigrant Gap were badly damaged. But, Friday's storm was nothing in comparison with yesterday's, which has had the effect to cause a genuine blockade, besides doing an immense amount of damage. The snow continued to fall, and its weight soon caused the rotten snowsheds to break down, and a slide occurred nearly every hour of the day; two thousand feet of shed gave way at Tamarack, and a half-mile of shed was broken between Emigrant Gap and Cisco. In a dozen other places the sheds fell across the track. It was still storming on the mountains at last accounts, and no one can tell how soon the road will be clear. The train which left Reno yesterday morning, with cattle, was compelled to return here from Truckee last night. The west-bound overland upon its arrival here last night, was ordered to stop until the road was clear. An engine, with one coach, was made up for a train to take some engineers to Truckee, where their services were needed.

The storm has also played havoc with the telegraph. Last night there was only one wire working west, and it was expected it would go down.

The Tax Levy.

The tax levy for the coming fiscal year will be made by the County Commissioners at their meeting to-morrow.

We have received a copy of the "New York Mining Directory," just published by Messrs. Hollister & Goddard, 30 Broad street, New York. It quotes the titles of about seven hundred mining companies, with a New York representation, the capital stock, par value of shares, office address, etc. Also, the names of perhaps a thousand men in and about New York, having connections with the mining interests; also, the names and addresses of all the members of the New York Mining Stock Exchange, with other important matter connected with the handling of mining shares. No man having connections with this great and increasing industry can afford to be without one. Price, one dollar, postage paid.

Charley Stoddard has bought the Tilton ranch—13 acres—near the Prison walls, and will move his family there to live as soon as he fixes the house. His Reno residence will be rented. Charley will not resign his position as express messenger, but will get help to raise the McKenzie's Benefit.

Mr. D. Banks McKenzie has every reason to feel proud at the substantial benefit given him last night by his Reno friends and admirers. Despite the disagreeable weather the theatre was crowded, and the exercises a treat. Several ladies and gentlemen who were to have assisted in the evening's entertainment were unable to be present, so that the original programme was somewhat altered. Little Minnie McKenzie sang "A Song of the Rose," and later in the evening recited "Mother's Prayers." Her voice was very clear, and she seemed to understand the meaning of the earnest language of the poem. Richard Jose's solo was a comic song of the day. The young men present whose "repertoire" of pet names is exhausted, had the opportunity to replenish with a new and expressive stock. Cora Ferguson gave an instrumental selection in very good style for a child of her age. "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" was the title of Mr. Fassett's solo. His voice is of more than ordinary compass, and shows cultivation. The beautiful piano accompaniment was played by Miss Maragon. The Misses Finlayson sang the duet "In the Starlight." The music was very beautiful and deserved the enthusiastic encore given. Mrs. Sachse read a humorous yet pathetic story in verse, which told of an Irish mother's wild grief at the loss of her "darling b'y." Miss Mary Toombs sang that ever lovely ballad "Kathleen Mavourneen." The closing duet by Misses Jessie Jamison and Abbie Higgins, was a pleasant good-night to all. Mr. McKenzie, Mr. Dixon from San Francisco, and President Cassitt, in turn addressed the club on the subject of temperance. If eloquence and earnestness have power, their words must have had influence.

The lightning train was delayed at Emigrant Gap several hours yesterday morning. It was waiting there for the road to be cleared, when a snowplow backed into it, damaging the train considerably but hurting no one.

Lawyer Dickson came down from the Comstock last night, intending to go East. During his stay with us Chamberlain will try to amuse him.

SOMETHING WHICH SHOULD NOT BE OVERLOOKED.—Attention is called to the consequences of the approaching change of season. One in particular is the great clearance sale of my entire Fall and Winter stock at sweeping reduction of prices. Without exception goods will be sold mostly at cost. My object is to raise means enough to purchase my Spring stock. This is no farce. I most urgently request my patrons to call. This sale will last 30 days only, exclusively for cash.

I. BARNETT.

A Gain of 25 Per Cent.

The great annual Clearance Sale of Dry Goods, Carpets, Cloaks, Colmans, Shoes and Fancy Goods, will continue until March 1st, 1880. All goods will be disposed of regardless of cost or value to make room for the immense stock of Spring goods, now being purchased in New York market.
